

Fullerton ave. Got jewelry valued at $300.

Mrs. Gervaise Graham, owner of beauty parlor 1457 S. Michigan ave., severely injured when 47th st. car struck her electric auto at Drexel blvd.

Miss Mary E. Tobin, 18, 7116 S. Green st., telephone operator, struck by auto of Dr. Bertha Van Hoosen, 4845 Calumet ave., at 63rd and Halsted sts. Seriously injured.

Donald Parsons, 9, 300 S. Winchester, struck by auto of T. C. Gleason, 128 S. Leavitt st., at Ashland blvd. and Van Buren st. Fractured skull.

Edwin B. Stevens, 225 Englewood ave., struck by People's Gas Light & Coke Co. auto, driven by Wm. Bradley, 1703 W. Washington blvd., at state and 61st st. Seriously injured.

In New York a police captain is being tried for the murder of a man who didn't do as he wanted. In Chicago a police lieutenant is being tried for getting beaten up by a robber he was trying to arrest.

Saloon licenses of Goldberg Bros., 500 N. Clark st., and Harry Granks, 549 Wells st., revoked because of failure to comply with city ordinances.

Fred C. Miller, supt. of Borden's Milk Co., robbed of satchel containing $1,200 in checks and currency at Laffin st. station of Met. "L" road. He was hit on head with "billy." Slightly hurt.

James B. Redmond and Henry Kerr identified by Miss Florence Wodika, 2233 Larrabee st., as men who robbed her of $325 on Sept. 8.

Nels Swanson, structural iron worker, fell five stories from Boston store. Internally injured.

H. M. Higinbotham, 44, 1506 Maple ave., Evanston, arrested for speeding.

Joseph Bass, 12, 3930 S. Dearborn st., climbed pole, touched live wire and fell. Severely injured.

Wm. Crotty, Thomas Buckley, James Dunn, patrolmen, severely injured when Lake street car struck patrol wagon at Sangamon and Lake sts.

The worst of that war in the Balkans is that it is giving our trusts an excuse to raise prices again.

Mrs. Mary Weipert, 29, 628 Wells st., dead. Carbolic acid. Suicide. Ill health.

Irene Manoska, 5, 1546 N. Ashland ave., struck by Ashland ave. car in front of her home. Severely injured.

Chas. Foster, 334 W. 58th st., chauffeur, fined $100 for operating machine while drunk.

Fred Harris, 2919 Groveland ave., arrested on charges preferred by Miss Minnie Fisher, 2258 W. 21st pl., who says he attempted to mistreat her in an alley near S. State and Polk sts.

Mrs. Rosie Goodman, 33, 1401 S. Sangamon st., fell into coal hole in front of vacant bldg. at W. 14th and S. Canal sts. Seriously injured.

Which is worse—the woman whom desperation and starvation drive into the tenderloin, or the